PRESS RELEASE

Radisson Blu Plaza Bangkok Announces Exquisite White Truffle Menu

For centuries, truffles have been revered for their aroma, taste and aphrodisiac qualities – representing the very essence of what is a true culinary indulgence.

Now, exclusively for the month of November, Radisson Blu Plaza Bangkok has crafted a menu that celebrates this gastronomical jewel.

It is at their fine dining Italian restaurant – Attico, where this special menu has been created by Chef Dario. Specifically, the menu will feature white truffles sourced from the market town of Alba in Italy's Piedmont region. The white truffles from this region are regarded as the world's finest – known for possessing a taste and aroma that is truly unparalleled. The truffle only comes into season for a couple of months each year, so this tasting opportunity is a genuinely exclusive one.

Each dish has been expertly designed to draw out and enhance the complex, intoxicating flavour of the white truffle and diners will be able to sample this luxury ingredient through a menu of appetizers, pasta, risotto and a meat dish.

This selection of dishes will include a Wagyu beef tartar with shaved Parmesan, a beautiful Acquerello risotto with imported Castelmagno cheese and a richly flavoured meat dish known as Filetto Ai Tre Re, which features beef tenderloin, seared foie gras and creamy polenta.

The menu promises to be unlike any other Attico has served and will unquestionably provide food lovers with a truly unique culinary experience.
